

MORNING APPEAL

SUNDAY..... AUGUST 13

L. P. Fisher, newspapers advertising agents, 21 Merchants' Exchange, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. This paper is kept on file in his office.

THEY HAD THE CHANCE.

This week New York will witness a melancholy sight. About 100,000 of the unemployed of the great metropolis will parade the streets in their rags and tatters, with their empty stomachs and wan faces turned toward the massive blocks of granite and marble where wealth sets enthroned. They will pass down Wall street where millions of garnered gold is stored in steel vaults, and they will see the men who fatten on the necessities of the rest of the people of the United States. The people who will form that motley procession, are men who last fall voted the Democratic ticket and assisted in electing to the White House the man who has assisted in bringing about this very condition of affairs, that causes men to march the streets in mute appeal for bread. All over the county are men by the hundreds of thousands who are now penniless, and who marched to the polls last fall and cast their ballots which tightened the chains of poverty now clanking on their limbs. They sowed and now they will reap. The silver men had a candidate before them, who would have relieved this distress, but they treated his candidacy with grins and scoffs. Perhaps this winter, setting before an empty larder and a cold grate, they will have time to reflect on the past and think of the future. So long as there is not sufficient circulating medium in the United States for the masses to do business with, so long will poverty and hard times stare the laboring man in the face. In 1896, those men will have a chance to right the wrongs of the past. They had this chance once and threw it away. Will they do the same again?

BY ALL MEANS DROP SUCH POLITICS.

It is queer politics to vote goldbugs into office one year, and then the next year hold silver conventions and raise money to send delegates to fight those same goldbugs! Wouldn't it be more sensible to keep the money sent to be spent among the goldbugs and of course against them, and spend it at home here against the Eastern monometallists? How many thousands of dollars do you think Western free coinage men will spend legitimately in Washington during the coming special session of congress to secure free coinage? And why? Simply because the government is run by goldbugs who were elected by the people. Any school-boy of any intelligence knows that if people will vote for a goldbug they must take their medicine. If they will "drop their politics," let them stay dropped and not pick them up again until the silver question is settled, free coinage would come speedily.—News Miner.

Exactly.

The Independent thus speaks on the question, "What is the matter with the University?"

If the Journal would investigate the discipline at the University and lay the result before the Regents they would perhaps be able to answer its questions. It should also remember that an educational institution that is made a political hospital for the care of broken down party hacks of both sexes, is not calculated to appeal very strong to people who have sons and daughters to educate. A thorough investigation of the discipline at the State University and an overhauling of its faculty would result in an increased attendance of Nevada boys and girls.

This is good plain talk and to the point. The University is one of the monumental educational humbugs of this State, and as an institution of learning cannot compete with the Reno High School.

A Pitched Battle.

Birmingham, Aug. 12.—The Sheriff of Clark county had a pitched battle with the notorious Meacham gang near Thomasville, in which thirteen of the Meachams were killed and several of the Sheriff's posse so badly wounded that they cannot recover. The affair was the outgrowth of a feud of some years' standing, which culminated last Christmas in the murder of Ernest McCorquodale. The posse has been after the gang for some time as told in these dispatches last night.

No necessity for sending your money to California, thinking you can save something for we will be more than pleased to duplicate your bills.
